

J.D. Rapp

Vice President Business Performance Management and Strategic Planning (Finance)
Whirlpool Corporation

J.D. Rapp was named VP, Business Performance Management in 2007. Rapp joined Whirlpool Corporation in 1990 and has held a number of positions within the company, notably Director of Finance, North American Operations and Director, Organizational Capability. Prior to his current assignment, he led Whirlpool Corporation's Six Sigma program for North America. He is a certified Six Sigma Black Belt and innovation consultant. Rapp holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics and English from the University of Dayton.