

Jenna Myszak, CPA

Director of Tax

Atkore International Inc.

Jenna has over 15 years of experience in both domestic and international taxation, with significant experience in corporate tax of multi-national publicly-traded companies. Her career has encompassed a variety of tax issues including global tax planning strategies that provide effective ways of minimizing tax, advising on tax aspects of M&A activities and managing the overall corporate tax function, including tax reporting and compliance. She is currently the Director of Tax at Atkore International Inc., a global manufacturing company where she is responsible for the company's tax planning, accounting and compliance.